Henry

It has been super funny knowing you, we've had tons of laughs and junk. You had better be here next year, or the sophomore class will be a flop. I'm looking forward to having you in some of my classes, maybe??? Anyway, take care of yourself over the summer, see ya later, knowledge is a unique form of radiance...

it has no
particular qualities,
rather, it contains the properties of
quantities of lights
it can emerge slowly
as a candle flicker
or brilliantly
as a forest of neons;
it can penetrate
to x-ray depth,
or just set
a glow on the surface.
the purpose of knowledge is never compromised...
it is the teachers' role to flick the switch
that ignites a light
in a student's mind.
it will cast a light
where darkness had existed.

his eminence james francis cardinal mcintyre with gratitude to almighty god and to his eminence we dedicate this issue of the crown. cardinal mcintyre has distinguished the church and himself by his outstanding and unselfish interest in catholic education. may god grant him many happy and contented years in his retirement.

my dear graduates:

"let your light shine before all mankind."

as the sun brings a clarity into the world so should the light of truth bring goodness into the minds of mankind. you have been a source of light here at mater dei because of the good things which you have accomplished. continue to let the goodness of your lives be apparent to all with whom you associate. the truth is based on the basis of christ's love for mankind and this is the basis of our worth as persons. in the light of christ, the darkness was dispelled. as we are bearers of christ (christians), we are also bearers of his light.

god bless you
in mater dei,

students

everyday a student
lives entails
so much...
each day having its own obligations, its own requirements from everyone.

there is a time for everything, but mainly
for sharing:
ideas, hopes,
disappointments,
joys-
perhaps in a smile,
a spoken word, an understanding gesture.

we share and continue
to share...
we grow and continue to grow...

we meet life
as we intend it
and live it.

student life

the life of each student is constantly kept apace with time. . . each new day, every approaching minute offers a unique situation, a circumstance that is woven into a person's existence.

thoughts of an upcoming dance, a club project, a student council meeting, or a spirit week, all are placed in the minds of different students at some time during the year.

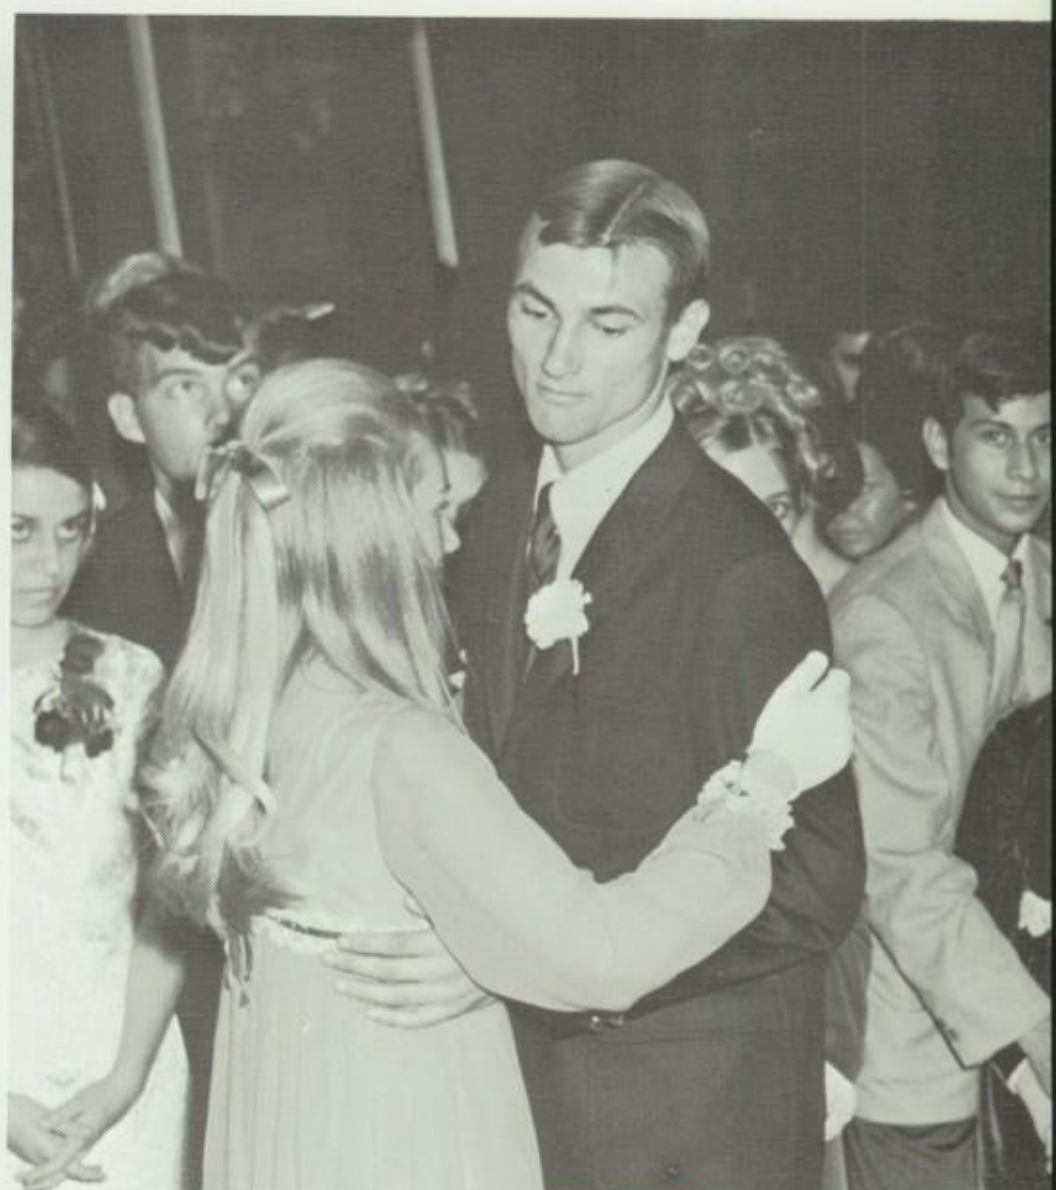

this unending sequence of events can practically cause one to become sunburnt by the glare of life.

this string of involvement can't be neglected. . .for through it a student finds a sparkle of friendship, the glow of responsibility, the light of self-giving.

activities

homecoming dance: an evening to remember

a withering
corsage, a wrinkled boutonniere, a
pastel green bid,
the spoon taken
from the restaurant,
the pictures. . .

all these and more
bring back the memory of
homecoming dance,
a cherished event
not soon forgotten.

the romantic realm
of scarborough
fair, enhanced by
the soft music,
heightened by
the traditional
queen's dance,
created an
enjoyable evening
for all who attended.

queen kathy and court preside at homecoming

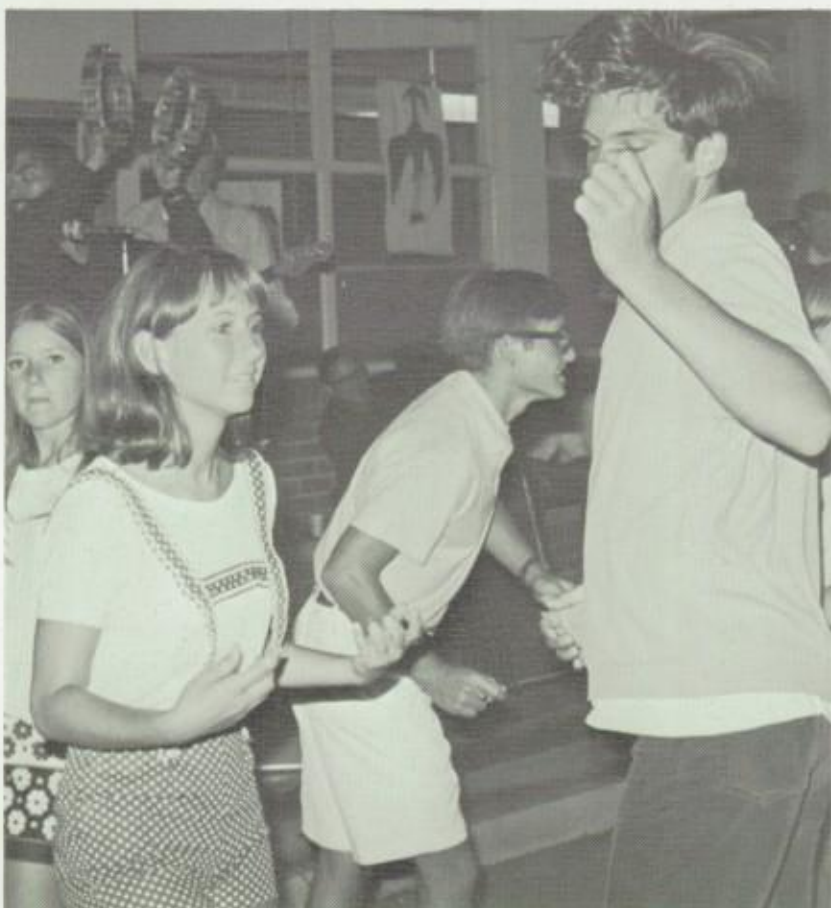

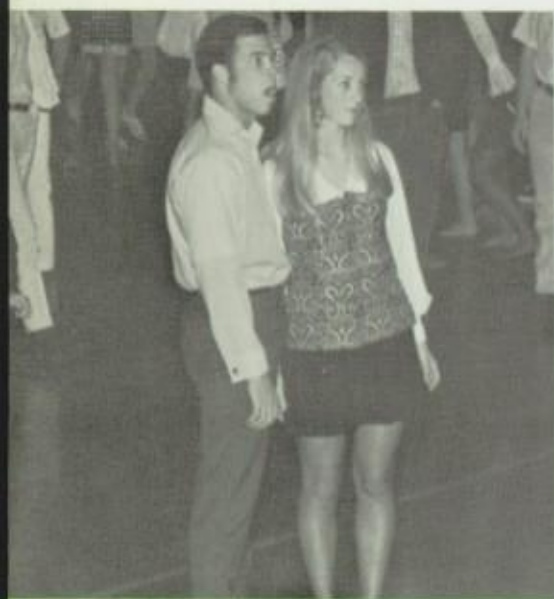

bowl gates opened to joyous students buoyed by perception of imminent victory. . . alumni returned recalling the spirit of yesterday monarchs. for hundreds of monarchs the reminders of past games, victories and homecomings vanished into the reality of the present conflict. halftime excitement mounted- the homecoming float appeared bearing the royalty: the princesses cathy o'connor, linda seal, betty smith, and leslie mckenzie. . . and regally crowned as queen, kathy corcoran, for the class of 1970.

dances were a time of togetherness

"get acquainted"
with new people and new ideas, an outdoor dance in bermudas!
"the horn of plenty in 1620," a spirit trophy graciously accepted by the juniors. christmas, 'tis the season to be foggy (??)
a fog machine ended a great light show.
a computer played cupid at student council's dance, the matchmaking event of the year.
mission drive concluded with a king and queen chosen to reign at the mission dance.
suddenly, the annual signing dance, a chance to remember a great year.

the subject was roses

on may 14, 1969,
the subject was roses,
a theme that flowered
in many ways during the junior-senior prom:

in the setting of the newporter inn,
in the music of the esquires,
in the formal gowns and
dinner clothes,
in the glad faces of
queen mary magnier
and her attendants
lynn whitmore
and cheri connell.
all elected by the student body to
reign as reflections
of monarch life.

a night to be recalled
often in memories.

festival by the sea created an aegean atmosphere

january 31, 1970,
the aegean festival
a co-ed dance
bringing back greek
historic scenes,
celebrated the coming of an early spring, the end of
semester exams.
the balboa pavilion
sheltering
monarchs, dancing to the beat of
churchill downs.
amid the party,
votes were cast to
honor basketball
players: tom walker
as king and bob
hauptert as prince.
too quickly the music
stopped, the newport
ferry made its last trip bringing the evening to a close.

drama dept. demonstrated superb acting

"curtain going up"
a situation comedy.
a teacher attempts
to produce a play;
finds her way blocked
by obstacles (a misfired prop gun) obstructions
obsessions;
she weeds out human conflict,
brings order out of chaos, and is hailed by all
-- a producer without peer.

talent show presented a variety of acts

tenseness pervaded the atmosphere;
the emcee appeared;
the curtain rose and the 1970 talent show began.

many witty and original acts
-- a flood of young talent.
music that exhilarated the soul;
comic skits made laughter flow; monologues and songs brought forth the sweet hum
of human vocal chords.
what the audience experienced will never be forgotten.
1970 winner- tim gallant.

monarch unity and enthusiasm resulted in sparkling spirit weeks

spirit. . .
a monarch's
second name.
enthusiastic ideas,
involved projects,
poster parties,
rallies. . .
class unity.

"paw power", the seniors' spirited
cry.
a mighty shout,
a sign for victory.

spirit weeks. . .
the bringing together of an entire people for
one common goal.
screaming, pushing,
clapping, praying,
everyones' giving
for their five days.

our senior lion. . .
a new tradition. . .
dedication.
the junior cub
patrol,
a junior float,
the freshmen
mourners,
the sophomore
gunslingers ready
to "whup the warriors".

all of us. . .
monarchs.

the weeks go on. . .
 monarch royalty is
 crowned in splendor.
 banners dance up
 and down to the movement of their
 creators.
 a unique outfit,
 the near catastrophe
 of a nail on a bench,
 a line of jubilant
 seniors --
 all manifestations
 of the excitement
 and anticipation
 of the coming
 conflict.

eighteen hundred
 lives welded into
 one. . .
 a strength ever
 present but unique
 to Mater Dei.

spirit radiated
 as the season
 drew to a close

student cabinet was an experience in service

student cabinet sought and found how to serve. following the difficult course of leadership, the members experienced the exhilaration of a job well-done as they felt the disappointment caused by indifference to an enthusiastic idea. the troubles, the responsibilities, the misunderstandings, the endless communications... the satisfaction of giving a project all you can. each chore, from minute to time consuming, completed to achieve a purpose - a sense of service to others.

headed by president jim blackburn, constantly aided by vice-president jo wigmore, treasurer dom maggio, and secretary linda patin. agendas were planned, meetings were called to order, committees were chosen, and ideas were transformed into realities.

i.c.c. combined the interests of the clubs

inter-club council connected the diverse ideas of various clubs... under the leadership of representatives john harney and murray mlady. bulletins were published, the activities of the different organizations became known to the student body. relating to each other, club presidents set objectives and arranged means to attain them.

the house provided a path for communication

house of representatives-a group containing one student from each section room, constructed to provide efficient communication,
a link between students and their council...
each representative actively participating,
reading daily bulletins,
informing their sections,
working on various projects.
a voice as well as an organizer in their homerooms, a real asset to student government, a genuine service to the students.

gaining recognition from its three years of existence, girls' league was composed of senior girls from various campus groups. girls' league promoted a better understanding of school rules and better communication between administration and the girl students. a serious endeavor to make regulations more meaningful and to keep the girls more informed of these rules.

student relations were the unsung heroes

student relations, composed of juniors and seniors who assisted the deans in the difficult task of running a large high school.

running errands, enforcing dress codes, and directing hall traffic, when help was required they happily administered the school's needs.

i give to you the light of understanding . . .

these people brought to all a spirit of service and love. . .
they showed light to all they met-through every radiant smile. . .
encouraging word. . .
and outstretched hand. . .
they worked only for the satisfaction of knowing that they had helped. . .
they knew that others needed them and they were constantly there unselfishly giving of themselves. . .
through projects for vietnam and regular tutoring at delhi was shown dedicated christian service.

debate and forensics: leadership through speech

stressing leadership and expression this club displayed both serious moments
as well as light. . .
most important
moods were conveyed through a dynamic vocabulary and expressive gestures. . .
in the many tournaments
in which they competed, the club members
showed both the intelligence and the persuasiveness of great leaders. . .

science club opened new horizons

logical thinking,
scientific study,
club members learn both in their quest for knowledge.
students make this organization move.
movies, guest speakers,
and outings, make the science club a very rewarding endeavor.
chemistry, biology,
and physics. . .
participation of students from each field
provide for a better interpretation of scientific matters.

efficiency the product of the business club

catholic action sponsored many service projects

each of us was made by god and some of us grew tall.
others stood out in the wind their branches bent and fell.
those of us who walk in light must help the ones in darkness up. for that's what life is all about and love is all there is to life.

each of us was made by god
beautiful in his mind's eye.
those of us that turned out sound should look across our shoulders once and help the weak ones to their feet.

it only takes an outstretched hand.

hi-lighter stimulated communication

"take stands on any issues that affect you. . . we will attempt to stimulate student opinion. . ."
by showing people in monarch happenings, recording for today
and perhaps for tomorrow;
by presenting the now of hopes, images and cares materialized into purposes carried out and forever remembered in a column of type; by responding to ideas, convictions and views of the monarchs; by reproducing memories that mind and heart will re-read and cherish; participants in that work became friends
in a life of communication, the theme for which they worked.

meeting together to discuss scholarships for deserving students, projects to better the school, bringing in speakers from other colleges
to share their insights into higher education. . .

the california state
scholarship federation—
members of all the school with 3.5 g.p.a.'s,
truly an elite group,
they considered outings,
guest speakers,
and special lectures
they became aware of the educational needs of all students.

aeolian staff became a new literary force

the new mater dei literary magazine the aeolian—
containing treasures of the minds of its contributors
forms of poetry and prose gathered from the students.

staff met after school
and on weekends
meeting constantly with sister kathleen and mr. barrett searched the los angeles county art museum in order to find cover ideas.

together they worked as a close group
and produced the youngest publication on campus.
and together they felt

the welcoming committee showed care in action care came softly and suddenly through the welcoming committee. members believed in being concerned and they showed it:

they stayed after school and made sandwiches for visiting teams and famished monarch athletes, they taped up the santa ana bowl with posters,
they directed the flow of monarch students pouring into the stadium.
during the basketball season they still showed hospitality.
under daphne mc cree's direction monarch spirit was transformed into monarch action.

lettermen united in the monogram club

varsity athletes,
they came together:
trackmen, baseball players,
united with cross-country men, football and basketball players, they participated in activities other than sports,
they enjoyed fun,
especially school involvement.
they sponsored
a year end super show.
it reflected the sense of humor and the varied talents
of all the members.
for these privileged people, monogram happenings
became a significant part of their mater dei lives.

songleaders combined effort with talent

another facet of monarch spirit. . .
the songleaders.

their objective. . .
expressing the
enthusiasm of their fellow
monarchs through dance.

the precision of their steps. . .
typical of
monarch perfection.

their quick
movements --
always ending with an outburst of
clapping.

a combination of talent and unity. . .
the perfect
completion of the varsity
pep squad.

jv cheerleaders: vital to success

on every level
monarch
exuberance must be generated. . .
a challenge taken
on by the junior varsity cheerleaders.

the happiness
of a responsive
cheering section,
the disappointment of being the only four
there to cheer. . .
emotions felt
often by these fantastic four.

their task great,
their success
obvious, a unit
vital to the mater dei family.

band and drill team marched into a new decade

the band and drill team marched into the 69-70 season. . .

glorious in their new routines and numbers-
walking away with honors. . .
present at all games-basketball and
football

playing music, shouting to the world that monarchs are here!

the drill team members-spending their after school time on the blacktop, rehearsing and preparing for each half-time competition with drive and determination.

the results of both band and drill team shown so clearly in half-times, in winning tournaments, in the faces of amazed spectators.

band and chorus gave memorable performances

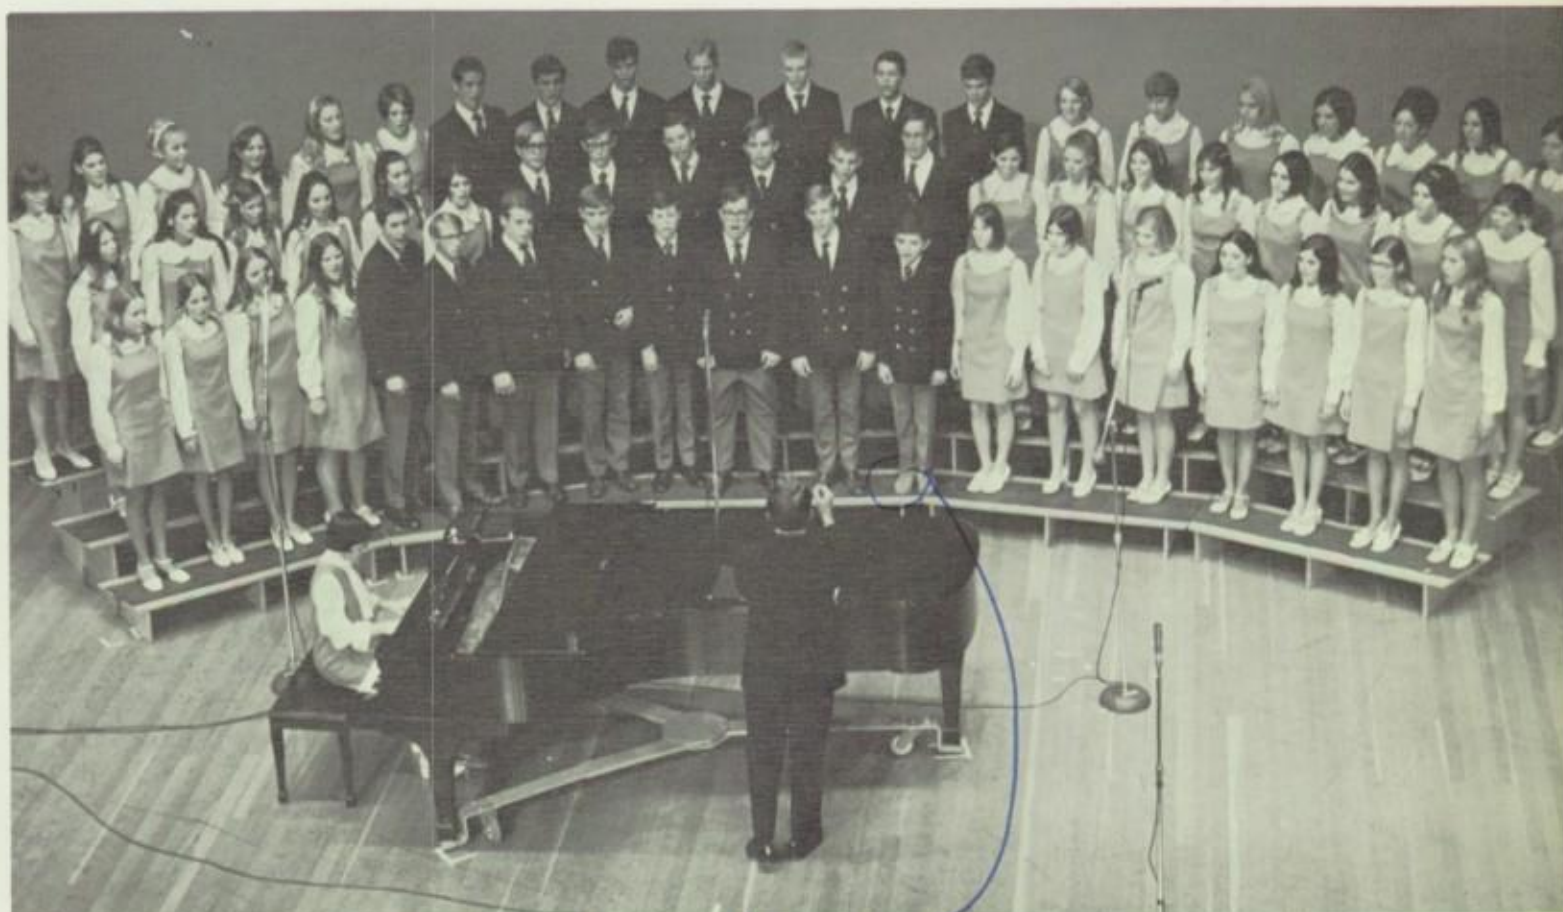

concert band
its members some of the finest at mater dei,
specially selected
from the marching band, preparing for the fall
and the spring festivals, competing in archdiocesan
and secular contests, triumphing in all,
under the direction of
mr. clark. . .
the chorus directed by mr. horton heralding things to come in musical sound,
the exuberance of
their voices,
displayed at all their
performances,
heard even in early morning
practices,
they transformed
time and work
into music.

sports

a ray in the light of the experience of being a monarch sports.

football
brought together all monarchs, kindled a spirit of unity at all the games.

basketball,
speed and precision fused into a fast and furious display of timing and co-ordination.

a tremendous amount of edurance, matched with sprints of speed; track and cross-country called for a demand of time and hard work.

the latter part of the year brought the sport of baseball.
timing and thinking
characterized a successful season.

girl's sports gave athletically-inclined girls a chance to participate.

a sun of spirit-inspired unity shone with brilliance over this facet of monarch life.

football

finishing third in the angelus league, one of the roughest leagues in c.i.f., the monarchs ended the 1969 season with a record of 6-3.
in pre-season, they were 3-1,
and in league play, 3-2.
one of these losses was to c.i.f. finalist bishop amat.
spirit illuminated from
fired-up monarch gridders.
some stood out more than others, but all of the unnoticed likemen, the specialty teams, many plans, efforts, long hours that fans never saw together went into a season that was one victory short of the c.i.f. playoffs,
and concluded a decade of great monarch football.

monarchs began season with two wins and a loss

first game, number one. . .
 magic words for anxious monarchs.
 an air of confidence,
 yet an atmosphere of uncertainty.
 the coaches' words ringing in their ears the roar of the crowd.
 the ball is kicked. . .
 it hangs suspended;
 a swirl of color,
 a new season is under way.
 santa ana high, cross-town rival;
 a win.
 loyola, a tough game,
 a tough loss to accept.
 lakewood, highly ranked,
 surprised by the spirit of underdog monarchs,
 a victory.

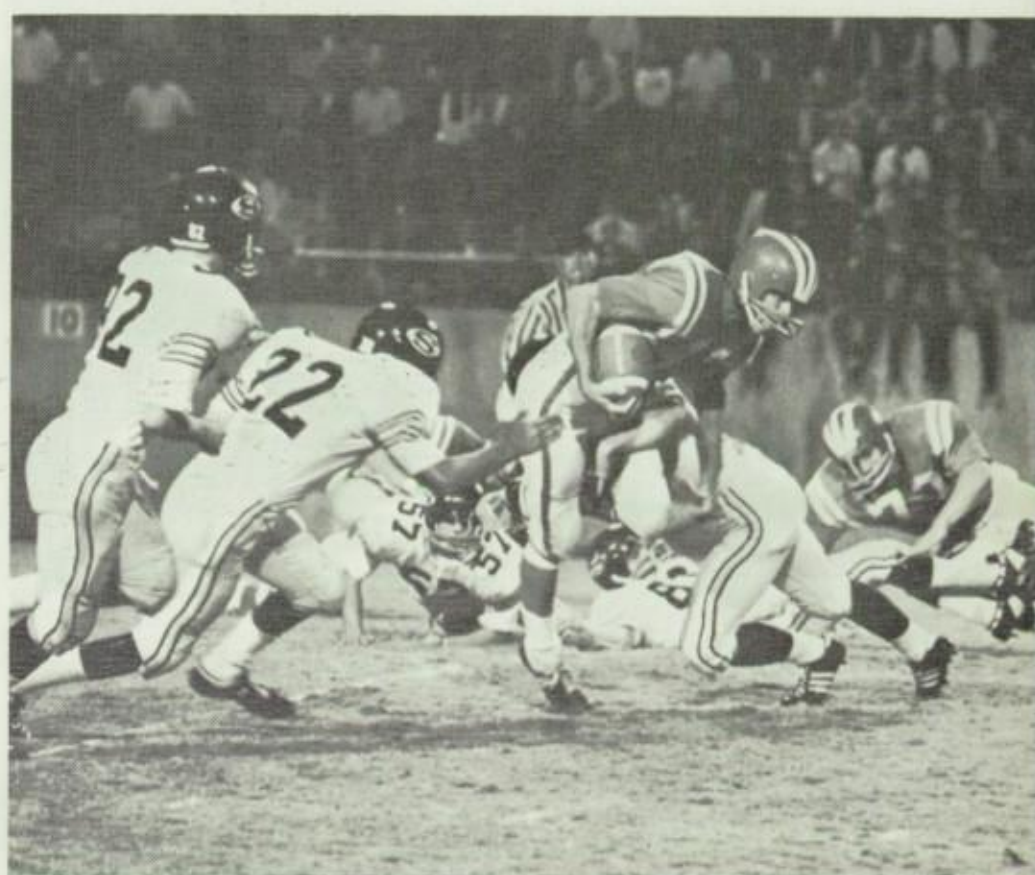

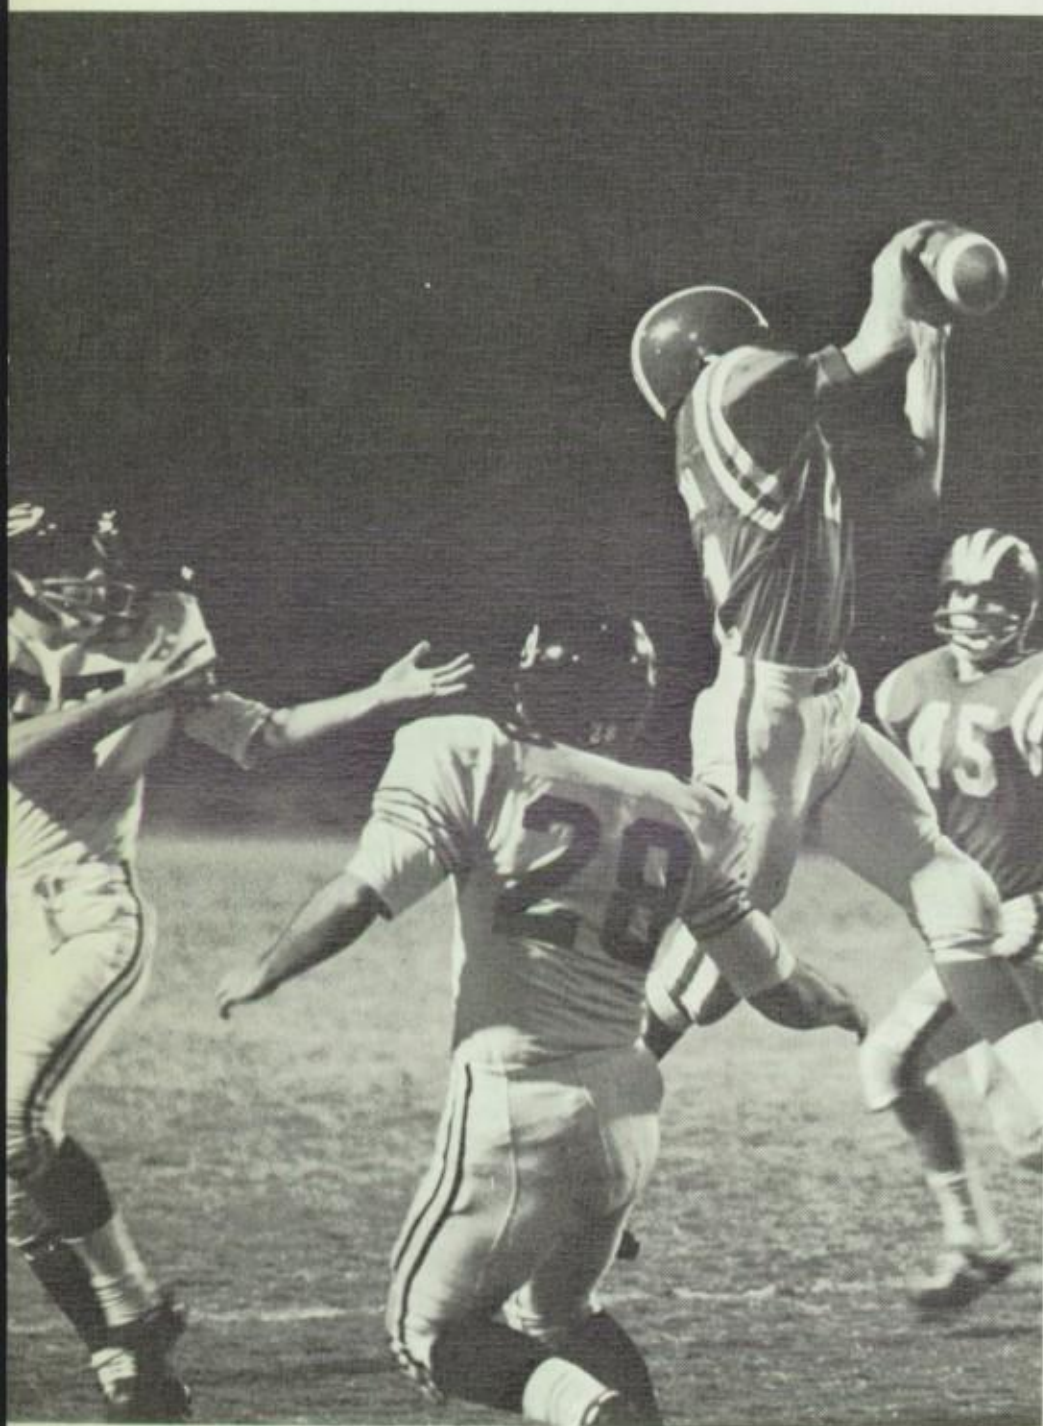

upper right: number 83, jim nanry, signals for pass from quarterback bob haupt. center left: mark dunn, number 45, finds a hole in the loyola line made by two unidentified linemen. lower right: number 12, bob haupt, rolls to the right looking for open receivers against loyola.

monarchs opened league with a win

long beach wilson. . .
the highly-rated bruins pitted against spirited monarchs.
last game before league,
an heroic effort,
a come-from-behind win.
servite. . .
long time rival,
the splendor of homecoming
a gala event,
league opener,
a jubilant monarch crowd,
as the monarchs
came away with a hard-fought win.

top: mark dunn returns a kickoff against long beach wilson.

upper left: in the closing seconds of the first quarter, stan jackson is brought down by bishop amat.

monarchs defeated pius x, lost to bishop amat

on the road. . .
pius x, and monarchs highly favored.
first string got a rest in the easiest victory of the year.
but bishop amat,
highly ranked in c.i.f.,
fought harder than pius x, in order to retain their ranking. leading 7-0 at the half,
the monarchs entered the second half optimistically, but the bishop amat lancers were confident of the success they fought for.
the lancers scored,
and monarch defense could not hold up against a fired-up lancer offense.
the monarchs lost, 28-7,
but their most difficult,
and most important
contest was yet to come against st. paul.

bottom center: monarch defense readies itself for the pius x offense.

bees captured co-championship of league

led by coaches lawler and wiehardt, the bee team fought to one of the greatest seasons in the history of bee football at mater dei. with a record of seven wins, one loss and one tie, they rapidly learned what it meant to win and to lose. their last step before varsity football, was characterized by a fighting team spirit and the leadership of their co-captains larry drazba and rocky simpson. looking forward to future years, the bees should one day make a great varsity team.

basketball

acute precision, speed,
endurance:
coach tardie's third year as head coach proved to be one of the most successful in mater dei's history.
a goal of getting into
the c.i.f. playoffs
was the guiding force of the charged-up monarch team.
a new surge of excitement in the student body was sparked by a winning team.
the results of their hard work, and long hours was climaxed by a high ranking in c.i.f., and by many standing ovations from a spirited student body.

upper left: kathy howard evaluates the game up to that point with calmness and insight.
upper right: kathy scott covers her base with an eagle eye and a keen mind.
left: timmerie sullivan prepares to receive the ball as the game comes to the climax.

there's so much that happened in our yearbook. a lot of people not on the staff responded to the needs of the crown; among these friends were our patrons whose investments helped provide for more pages and more pictures. their advertisements are included in our yearbook. we only hope that you will show your appreciation to our patrons by patronizing them in return.

Henry.
To a guy in my economics class (sleeping all day in it) have a bitchin summer.

John

"yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away"

try to remember that time in september . . . pictures taken . . . freshmen entering into the fast-happy high school life . . . everyone barely recovered from the sights and sounds of summer . . . dancing at the outdoor g.a.a. welcome dance and the "mourning joy" . . . frosh girls adopted by seniors for the big sister-little sister tea . . . time-worn "little red schoolhouse" play . . . beanies blossoming on campus october winds blew chilly and cold . . . but not on monarchs . . . remember chocolate melted in the sun during the drive . . . caught up in the spirit of football and fight, team, fight . . . homecoming and super senior spirit showed . . . floats for the contest, carnations sent to special friends and homecoming at abram's town and country november and the briskness of winter . . . s.a.t., remember that??? . . . open house . . . the band and chorus sang praises of wintertime at the fall festival . . . c.i.f. cross-country championship . . . dancing inside the gym and remembering the "moods" at the thanksgiving dance . . . frantic with school spirit the juniors win the spirit trophy . . . turkey and thanksgiving vacation deep in december it's nice to remember . . . christmas spirit uniting the school in christian kindnesses . . . kris kringles in section . . . chorus singing in the gym . . . carols ringing across campus . . . san francisco's golden gates opening wide for the varsity speech students . . . basketball tournaments at corona, rancho alamitos and bishop amat . . . juniors presented a super light show christmas dance with "bootleg" . . . vacation at last with mater dei closing its doors to 1969 a brand new decade began with january . . . we recall the red-shirts supporting our c.i.f. hopefuls . . . our football stars were honored at the awards banquet at the elk's club . . . "curtain going up", a smash success for the drama club . . . k-mart shopping area off-limits during semester exams . . . half-day holidays . . . talent show . . . an experiment in dancing—we used a computer . . . greek mystery was lent for the co-ed dance . . . an era ended with the resignation of cardinal squad tryouts. . . "yea red! yea white!" . . . white lilies and easter holidays. . . a celebration for the resurrection . . . 50 yard dashes and home-runs in track and baseball league competition. . . physical ability and unity in action

"april, come she will". . . bringing the end of the third quarter. . . lights, action! performance in style-the senior class play. . . a time for remembering and helping others-money raised for the missions in true monarch spirit. . . mission king and queen elected at sodalities' dance. . . summer's fever grew stronger. . . students faithfully continued tutoring

"what a day for a daydream" in may. . . candidates and campaigns. . . speeches and promises rang in the air. . . bright posters lined the walls in quilted patterns. . . student body and class officers elected. . . house of representatives choosing for the coming year. . . junior-senior prom in a fantasia of excitement at the newporter inn--a night to remember. . . awards banquet at the elk's club recognized physical achievements and endeavors . . . year slowly started to close with the annual-signing dance. . . sad good-byes for graduating seniors, but hopeful hellos and excitement for a new life

mc intyre

february was fair of sky and short of air. . . a day of prayer for cardinal mc intyre. . . our campus was refreshed with a new coat of paint. . . we met our tidings quota. . . party masks and adult laughter greeted mardi gras fun . . . lent and a time for thoughtful reflection and meditation, a time for preparation. . . achievements recognized at the honors assembly spring mists set the stage for march. . . a new feverish excitement and awakening sung in harmony for the spring musicale . . . pep june. . . did she really come so soon? . . . the year went by so fast, a dream that didn't seem to pass. . . once again semester exams filled the week. . . frantic time for studying. . . i.t.e.d. tests soon followed. . . filling in circles, so many tiny circles . . . at last. . . school was closed and the sun shone brightly in hopes and memories.

how fortunate we are to see to claim light
as almost tangible
not just blackness
or whiteness
but a whole diversity
a kalaidescopic range
of tints to apply
to situations
we experience

looking back on a year gone what light will signify it the sparkle of friendship the illuminance of learning the foggy glow of truth pursued the collage of intensities of trying to be ourselves the beauty of sharing a certain glow with someone who may be totally blind to light

as we proceed
into that faint beam called future our lifeline spectrum will always reserve
a particular radiance for this year for as we sunward gaze
the shadow behind

to try to capture a fleeting day, a year.
to visualize in a new way
the light of new thoughts.
this book could only reflect the spirit of the ringing in of the new through pictures, and especially through words.

as co-editors we hope you can find in this the glimpse of truth.
to see in a new light
the people-
their thoughts, discoveries, joys, sorrows, loves, fears. . .
the life of mater dei
that sings
light.
